

Second Heartbeat (Live In The LBC)

Avenged Sevenfold

We keep writing, talking and planning, but everything's changing
We all know what to do but know one does it
Now this time has passed and full of regret
Two in my heart have left me a while, I stand alone
When they get back, it won't be the same
My life, you've always been there
Now you're gone and my heads spinning
Left the childhood, left the memories, left the good times in the past
Moving on your time has run out
Wishing the clock would stand still, the world can wait
Wasting away once again, once lived as friends As time passes by, regrets for the rest of my life
The ones who I confide were gone in the black of the night Never will I forget you, and all the memories past
So rarely I get to see your face
Growing I looked to you in guidance
We knew that time would kill us, but you're still so close to me To me you were my life
To me you were my soul companion
Now you are so far away
Nothing can take away the time and the memories we had Come back, to the days when we were young
Come back, to the days when nothing mattered
To the days when nothing mattered
