

Doing Time

Avenged Sevenfold

HahahahahaIf walls can taught to spills the lies
We'll see the world through devil's eyesI maintain an addiction
They know they take to high
I gotta a inch with a loaded head trigger
And a one way ticket to flyWhen there's no writing on the wall
I see the lifeless devils start to crawl
And I don't need no lessons
After all
Everybody is doing their timeGot you right in the corner
Don't you look me wrong
? 'till they gonna got a -
What don't belongI see the writing on the wall
I see the lifeless devils start to crawl
And I don't need no lessons
After all
Everybody is doing their timeUhhh
That's just the price to play
So tell me what you like
Gotta handle the ?Had enough of opinions
I got enough on my mind
Sell your soul for approval and a dollar
Got a pretty little body to grindI see your number on the wall
I see the lifeless devils start to crawl
I don't need no lessons
Watch the fall
You lost my attention
After all
Everybody is doing their time
