Call You Tonight

Johnta Austin

The stars must be your light, tonight.
I believe this has to have a meaning.
Lightning had to strike, tonight cause the two of us are finally meeting.
In this place, at this time and I feel safe when I look in your eyes.
I feel like I know you from another life.
And it makes me wish I wasn't so pressed by time.I can't catch my breath cause you take it away.
The best writer in town could not find words to say.
How there's so many things I want to get to know.
I wish that I could stay but I got to go so I'ma call you tonight.
I will baby, just as soon as I get time alone.
I'ma call you tonight, I will baby.
Just as soon as I get home.That's the way it goes in life, you get busy when you just don't wanna.
There's never enough time, day or night.
You have to make it so baby, I'm gonna.
Make a way to connect, cause your face is one I can't forget.
I feel like I know you from another life.
And it just makes me wish I wasn't so pressed by time.I can't catch my breath cause you take it away.
The best writer in town could not find words to say.
How there's so many things I want to get to know.
I wish that I could stay but I got to go so I'ma call you tonight.
I will baby, just as soon as I get time alone.
I'ma call you tonight, I will baby.
Just as soon as I get home.(Ooh)
Destiny, I believe in it.
Meant to be don't you see it's possible that this kind of magic, anything can happen.
And if you wanna know then you'll stay by the phone.(Woah)
(I can't catch my-)I can't catch my breath cause you take it away.
The best writer in town could not find words to say.
How there's so many things I want to get to know.
I wish that I could stay but I got to go so I'ma call you tonight.
I will baby, just as soon as I get time alone.
I'ma call you tonight, I will baby.
Just as soon as I get home
