The Way Back Home

Shakra

I believe that fallen angels
Are calling me tonight
A lot of pictures, many stories
Battling deep insideI don't know what easy living means
And I don't know what is true
I hope I'll find the right sign
For my way back home to youTONIGHT I WANNA BE FREE
LIVING IN MY WORLD OF FANTASY
TONIGHT I WANNA BE FREE
I HOPE I'LL FIND THE WAY BACK HOME TO MEWhispering voices, different words
Running through my brain
Slowly like an early morning
You call me back againI know what real life can offer
On my woven path tonight
One step before the door is shut
I find a way back to your lightTONIGHT I WANNA BE FREEI know what real life can offer
On my woven path tonight
One step before the door is shut
I find a way back to your lightTONIGHT I WANNA BE FREE
