

Pleasure City

Baby Strange

get strange in the dark we can rip rip rip it apart this place is the start are you ready are you ready try and relax
there is no turning back my cage just cracked i dont think i'm ready yet oh, i don't need your pity i found a way to the pleasure city run forever im not coming back tonight lost in the dark you can rip it up tear it apart forget the things you lost dont want don't need them slow it down you wanna come with me no doubt to the sun no place are you ready are you ready look out from your window you've got what it takes to turn it on on (on on on on)
oh it's a crying shame
all those people standing in our way things always looked so good from here we're going pleasure city we are going where the girls are pretty
tonight
