

Breezy

She Keeps Bees

holding the railing
winding stairwell
where I fell down
natural
that don't phase me
it's the life I agreed
my bargain for the plea too close to call
when you carry it all
like you knew all along they keep you like a ghost waiting for the breeze
breezy
like it or not accept it no need to haul yourself off epic falls you think peak atop the Sun call in what is needed
needed
tread gently
