Crywolf

(Crywolf)

Peel back your skin and come in close
Lace your ribs into my spine
I'll dissolve into your soul
Our bones fusing in the light Sing me, sweetly, songs of hope
Tell me things I can't deny
I'm your shadow, I'm your ghost
Prepare your soul, this is the night I know we're the lucky ones
You say you've never known another love 'till me
Let's become something greater than we've seen
Let's forsake our bodies and be free Run your fingers through my hair
Whispering softly in my ear
My arms are trembling, I'm so scared
Cause it's not the same without you here
