

Everything That Glitters (Is Not Gold)

Dan Seals

Saw your picture on a poster in a cafe out in Phoenix
Guess you're still the sweetheart of the rodeo
As for me and little Casey, we still make the circuit
In a one horse trailer and a mobile home And she still asks about you all the time
And I guess we never even cross your mind But, oh sometimes I think about you
And the way you used to ride out
In your rhinestones and your sequins
With the sunlight on your hair And, oh the crowd will always love you
But as for me, I've come to know
Everything that glitters is not gold Well, Old Red, he's getting older and last Saturday he stumbled
But you know I just can't bear to let him go
Little Casey, she's still growing and she's started asking questions
And there's certain things a man just doesn't know Her birthday came and you never even called
I guess we never cross your mind at all But then sometimes I think about you
And the way you used to ride out
In your rhinestones and your sequins
With the sunlight on your hair And, oh the crowd will always love you
But as for me, I've come to know
Everything that glitters is not gold Everybody said you'd make it big someday
And I guess that we were only in your way
But someday I'm sure you're gonna know the cost
'Cause for everything you win, there's somethin' lost But, oh sometimes I think about you
And the way you used to ride out
In your rhinestones and your sequins
With the sunlight on your hair And, oh the crowd will always love you
But as for me I've come to know
Everything that glitters is not gold
Everything that glitters is not gold
