

Heaven Denies

Demons & Wizards

I've stained the land
Millenniums I've prayed
Now I know there's no release Since paradise is lost
I hold a crown
I know your name
But I am just your Fallen angel of doom Thus heaven denies
Refused for all times
I am not guilty at all [Chorus]
Deadlands, wastelands
Darkness will cover my mind
And oblivion shall reign
I made up my mind
And oblivion shall reign through the night
Deadlands, wastelands
Darkness will cover my mind
And oblivion shall reign Still we are one, you and I
Realize, I did what you wanted me to The lack of pure souls and the fading light
It's me you blame First there was light
Then came the night
Cruel nothingness Thus heaven denies
Refused for all times
I am not guilty at all [Chorus] Hope turns to despair
There's no one in these barren lands
The lust for light
I'm sure that it will fade
It will fade
Spiritus Sanctus
The lust for light
I'm sure that it will fade
Spiritus Sanctus Eternal hell
