Little Wonders

Rob Thomas

Let it go, let it roll right off your shoulder
Don't you know the hardest part is over?
Let it in, let your clarity define you
In the end we will only just remember how it feelsOur lives are made in these small hours
These little wonders, these twists and turns of fate
Time falls away but these small hours
These small hours still remainLet it slide, let your troubles fall behind you
Let it shine until you feel it all around you
And I don't mind if its me you need to turn to
We'll get by, its the heart that really matters in the endOur lives are made in these small hours
These little wonders, these twists and turns of fate
Time falls away but these small hours
These small hours still remainAll of my regret will wash away somehow
But I cannot forget the way I feel right now
In these small hours
These little wonders, these twists and turns of fate
Yeah, these twists and turns of fate!Time falls away, yeah but these small hours
And these small hours still remain, yeah
Ooh they still remain
These little wonders, oh these twists and turns of fateTime falls away but these small hours
These little wonders still remain
