

Little City

Bon Jovi

LITTLE CITYI got my call light on, gimme one more fare tonight
Just get me over the bridge, I can see those shiny bay lights
You know I'm never alone but I'm feeling lonely tonight
Damn, I got my last cigarette but I ain't got no lightGod let these wheels roll to where the girls are pretty
Where the nights explode and life is still living
Down this open road, the arms of pity
Wait to greet me tonight in little cityIn my rear view mirror, I see someone else's hairline
I hear that fire in your eyes is on the rock and doing hard time
And the grapes of wrath, they're on the vine
There's wine in this dirt
Here love ain't love, it's just another four letter wordGod let these wheels roll to where the girls are pretty
Where the nights explode and life is still living
Down this open road, the arms of pity
Wait to greet me tonight in little cityshalalalalala, shalalalalala, shalalalalala, oh shalalalalala, shalalalalala, shalalalalala, ohGod let these wheels roll to where the girls are pretty
Where the nights explode and life is still living
Down this open road, the arms of pity
Wait to greet me tonight in little cityNow that cold grey fog's just a rolling down the highway
He's come to carry me home
It puts a little smile on my faceYeah, roll with me baby
I can see those daylights calling me home
Yeah, I'm never alone
Just turn the radio on There's an old song I used to know
