

crossing the deadline

crossing the deadline

Don't, don't, don'tThe sand, the sand it covers the land
It's just a victim you didn't stop it
High noon and the walk brings the storm with it
Born to it or lay on itDay on day, night on night
With the thrill of a kid on my side
I will survive as long as this trip will go
With my soulI search for water you need the cold
Bring me some bubbles and a crown of gold
Crossing the deadline befor it's too late
The finger snaps to the center of anger, waitI search for water you need the cold
Bring me some bubbles and a crown of gold
Crossing the deadline befor it's too late
The finger snaps to the center of anger, waitCross the line you will suffer
(No bridge, just one step)
Cross the line you will suffer
(No bridge, no way back)
Cross the line you will suffer
(Better give up, better stand up)
Cross the line you will suffer
(Better give up, better shut up)So where's the mountain
I can't reach the top of this worldOne, two, three, fourThe man, the man it covers the land
It's just a victim you didn't stop it
High noon and the walk brings the storm with it
Born to it or lay on itDay on day, night on night
With the thrill of a kid on my side
I will survive as long as this trip will go
With my soulI search for water you need the cold
Bring me some bubbles and a crown of gold
Crossing the deadline befor it's too late
The finger snaps to the center of anger, waitI search for water you need the cold
Bring me some bubbles and a crown of gold
Crossing the deadline befor it's too late
The finger snaps to the center of anger, waitCross the line you will suffer
(No bridge, just one step)
Cross the line you will suffer
(No bridge, no way back)So where's the mountain
I can't reach the top of this worldCross the line you will suffer (Better give up, better shut up)
Cross the line you will suffer

(Better give up, better shut up)So where's the mountain
