Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Turn out the lights and close the door
Girl, I've been waiting for too long
We don't need to pretend anymore
Let's stop wasting time, come here out on the floorGirl, I'll be so gentle with you
I'll take my time, get you in the mood, baby
And anything girl you want done
I'll do it for you baby, so don't you runGirl I'm still waiting, waiting for love
Anticipating, you're all I think of
Girl I'm still waiting, waiting for love
Anxiously, patiently waiting for loveDon't you deny what you feel inside
You've wanted to be with me all of this time
I can see the passion in your eyes
You purposely sigh every time that I tryBaby, you're for me and I got what you need
Girl, don't you worry, your love I will keep, babe
Girl, just relax and let your feelings go
We'll take our time baby, so don't you run, no no noGirl I'm still waiting, waiting for love
Anticipating, you're all I think of
Girl I'm still waiting, waiting for love
Anxiously, patiently waiting for loveBaby, don't you know the way I feel for you inside
Don't you know the way you make me feel inside
Don't you try and don't deny
You know the feeling's rightBaby, don't you know the way I feel for you inside
Relax and let your feelings go
Don't you try and don't deny
You know the feeling's rightGirl, I'm still waiting, girl, I'm waiting for love
Anticipating, you're all I think of
