

I Know That Hurt By Heart

Tracy Lawrence

It's dark in here tonight
A great place to come and hide from your blues
Hey, I don't mean to intrude
But I've seen that look before
I've heard that slamming door too
Just like you I know that hurt by heart
I've been right where you are
I know how it feels when your world is falling apart
Your not alone tonight
I know what lonely is like
I've still got the scars
I know that hurt by heart Hope you don't take this wrong
But that smile your putting on can't disguise
The tears in your eyes
And laughing like you don't care
Won't ease the pain down there inside
Believe me I've tried I know that hurt by heart
I've been right where you are
I know how it feels when your world is falling apart
Your not alone tonight
I know what lonely is like
I've still got the scars
I know that hurt by heart
