

I Don't Wanna Fight the Soviet

Angelic Upstarts

I feel a sense of disbelief when I read the lies of Media Street.

What to do and when to hate. Come on, lads; let's fight a war.

But what are we going for? There not the enemy.

Its closer to the land I feel. In the seasons of discontent that lead in to the slaughter of the innocent. I don't wanna fight the soviet, I don't believe he is a threat.

I don't wanna fight the soviet, I don't believe he is a threat.

I don't wanna fight the soviet, I don't believe he is a threat. He's never stopped me in the street, never asked me what I think or feel.

They're not the enemy. It's closer to the land I feel and in the seasons of discontent that lead in to the slaughter of the innocent. I don't wanna fight the soviet, I don't believe he is a threat.

I don't wanna fight the soviet, I don't believe he is a threat.

I don't believe it. I don't believe he is a threat.

I don't believe it. I don't believe he is a threat.
