Tradewinds

The Diskettes

My heavens low but the songs the same
Seems I'm always lookin' when I hear your name
You've been away but don't leave this side
Seen all of your faces you've tried to hide
So I'm sitting here in a train station
Lord, knows I step with no hesitation
Oh, I've seen through your lies
Still I'm one, still I'm one to testify
And I say, "I'll find a way to let you know
Hold me close when trade winds blow
Chances are you're over me
I'll catch that train eventually"
To the questions that you're asking
I've only expected everything
These arms of mine are burning
As I see, as I see those pages turning
And I say, "I'll find a way to let you know
Hold me close when trade winds blow
Chances are you're over me
I'll catch that train eventually"
I'll find a way to let you know
Hold me close when trade winds blow
Chances are you're over me
I'll catch that train eventually
My heavens low but the songs the same
Seems I'm always lookin' when I hear your name
You've been away but don't leave this side
Seen all of your faces you've tried to hide
So I'm sittin' here in a train station
Lord, knows I step with no hesitation
Oh, I've seen through your lies
Still I'm one, still I'm one to testify
And I say, "I'll find a way to let you know
Hold me close when trade winds blow
Chances are you're over me
I'll catch that train eventually"
I'll find a way to let you know
Hold me close when trade winds blow
Chances are you're over me

I'll catch that train eventually
Said I'm sorry
Said I'm sorry
I'm a lover
I'm a lover who says, he's sorry
Said I'm sorry
Said I'm sorry
I'm a lover
I'm a lover who says, he's sorry
Said I'm sorry
Said I'm sorry
I'm a lover
I'm a lover who says, he's sorry
