This Depression

Bruce Springsteen

Baby, I've been down but never this down
I've been lost but never this lost
This is my confession. I need your heart in this depression.
I need your heart.
Baby, I've been alone but never this alone.
I've had my faith shaken but never hopeless.
This is my confession. I need your heart in this depression.
I need your heart.
I need your heart.
I haven't been always been strong but I've never felt so weak.
I hold my breath long for nothing.
I've been without love but never forsaken.
Another morning sun, the morning sun is breaking.
This is my confession. I need your heart in this depression.
I need your heart, this is my confession.
I need your heart in this depression.
I need your heart this is my confession.
I need your heart in this depression.
I need your hear.
