

Run, Run, Run

The Supremes

Girls, gather 'round me and hear the news
He finally kissed me, oh, happy days
My heart's gotta shout it
I'll get my diary and write about it Well, as your friends, we want to say
He'll break your heart one day
So you better run, run, run, run, run, run
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Oh, but he's such a quiet kind of guy
How he thrills me, my oh my
Maybe it isn't true
What they say about him Don't be fooled, by the shyness in his eyes
Don't you know, he's just a devil in disguise
So you better run, run, run, run, run, run
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Well, as your friends, we want to say
He'll make a fool of you one day
So you better run, run, run, run, run, run
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah No, no, no, but how can I run away
When I love him more each day
So with him I'm gonna stay
I'll take my chances along the way He won my heart from the start
From him I will never never part
I love him so, love him so, never let him go Every time he gets nearer
My love gets dearer, so much dearer
Oh no, no, no, no, I can't run, no, I can't run
No, no, no, no, no
