Around The Horn

The Bronx

And give it a rest and then try it again with more soul
Until you learn that clearing your heads'
Is the same as losing control in this space
Don't let it drive you crazy
Don't let it drive you insane, there's no point
Because you just keep turning us on and turning us off
And on and off and onUntil we're light as a feather and we're stiff as a board
Light as a feather and we're stiff as a boardGive it a break, 'cause if you try it again you'll get bored
Because you don't really know where it starts
But you know that it ends with no friends
'Cause even this is a test and I'm sorry if it breaks your bubble
But you still need some rest 'cause it's gonna go
It's gonna goOn and on and on
On and on
On and on
On and on
On and on
Oon
Until it hurts
We will go on and on
On and on
On and on
On and on
On and on
On and on
Until it hurts
We will goAnd give it a rest and then try it again with more soul
Until you learn that clearing your heads'
The same as losing control in this space
Don't let it drive you crazy
Don't let it drive you insane, there's no point
That you still need some restOn and on and on
And on and on
And on and on
And on and on
And on and on
And on
Until it hurts
We will go on and on

And on and on
And on and on
And on and on
And on and on
And on and on
Until it hurts
We will goTurning us on and turning us off
You keep turning us on and turning us offAnd give it a rest and then try it again with more soul
Until you learn that clearing your heads'
The same as losing control in this space
Don't let it drive you crazy
