Howling Boy

Scheer

Howling boy,
And he is coming out,
Howling boy,
And he is coming.
Boy, your eyes are wide,
With something you can't hide,
They'll break a stick across your back,
They'll kill your dreams and tell you that.
You're a howling boy,
He's coming out,
And he's coming out,
And he's almost there,
This howling, howling boy,
Howling boy,
And he is coming.
Boy, don't believe then, don't take them so seriously,
They'll try their best to keep you down,
They'll throw you in and watch you drown
You're a howling boy,
He's coming out,
And he's coming out,
And he's almost there,
This howling, howling boy,
Don't believe them
Howling boy
Don't take them so
He is a howling boy
They'll try to breaking
Howling boy
This howling boy
Howling boy,
And he is coming.
Boy, your eyes are wide,
With all the things you can't hide,
They'll break a stick across your back,
They'll kill your dreams and tell you that.
You're a howling boy,
He's coming out,
And he's coming out,

And he's almost there,
This howling, howling boy,
Don't believe them
Howling boy
Don't take them so
He is a howling boy
They'll try to breaking
Howling boy
This howling boy.
