

A Little Something Refreshing

No Doubt

Yeah, yeah oh
I'm hungry, yeah
I said I'm starving, yeah I want some pizza, coke and ice cream, popcorn, cotton candy
Marshmallows milkshake and peanuts would be so great
Pies chips, candy apples, twinkies, frosted flakes
And donuts, french fries and some chocolate cake with mustard
Cookies, avocados, pancakes, pineapple juice
Whipped cream on some raw meat, that's not all I could Eat
I'm hungry
I want some food for my tum I want some honey roasted walnuts, pepperoni slices
Pasta and burritos, different kinds of rices
Cherries dipped in chocolate, cottage cheese and jelly
Colonel sander's chicken, still won't fill my belly
Broccoli sticky syrup, churros dipped in sauce
Drippy sloppy joes, then I'm full at last
