

Sleeping Single

Roxette

Here's the house
Here's the city and the stream
Here's the father to my dream
Here's the lost and lonely look in your eyes
When you leave I will break down and cry Sleeping single, I will wait for you
I'm sleeping single, 'til you change your mind
Sleeping single, I will wait for you
'Til time has gone by I'll pay the price
For all the love you poured like rain
Toujours l'amour over again
But the midnight chills are getting so rough
And the bed is big enough for both of us Sleeping single, I will wait for you
I'm sleeping single, 'til you change your mind
Sleeping single, I will wait for you
'Til time has gone by Sleeping single, I would die for you
I'm sleeping single, won't you change your way?
Sleeping single, I will pray for you to stay
Hey-hey-hey, hey-hey-hey Time has come by
Time has gone by Sleeping single, I will wait for you
I'm sleeping single, 'til you change your mind
Sleeping single, I will wait for you
'Til time has gone by Hey baby, I would die for you
Sleeping single, won't you, won't you change your way?
Sleeping single, I will pray for you to stay
Hey-hey-hey, hey-hey-hey Won't you change your mind?
Oh baby, oh
