Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Live the life, breath the lie
Fall in line, show us how to live
Lead us to the edge then throw us inWhen our senses fail us
Who'll be there to break our fall?
Who'll be there to save us from ourselves?You promised to show us the way
While selling your dreams of a radiant day
You gave us hopenosis, ill-lycid psychosisBlessed one, chosen one
Block the sun, show us how to live
Make us all believe that we can winRaise your armies thunder
Line us up again the wall
Endless confrontation severs allYou promised to show us the way
While selling your dreams of a radiant day
Lost in the roses, ill-lycid psychosis
You gave us hopenosis it's fucking psychosisHopenosisActor walks on the flood lit stage
Embellishing lies, just for show
Entrapper of nations, words of elation
Burned to the ground what is soldHopenosis
