Jail Bait

Wishbone Ash

I'm wonderin' why, your face no longer shines
I'm wonderin' why, your face no longer shines
I'm wonderin' why, you're always on my mind
I'm still wonderin', give me a little more timeI need to know, why I can't see your tears
I need to know, why I can't see your tears
I need to know how many lonesome years
I want to make you cast away your fearsI'm wonderin' why, your face no longer shines
I'm wonderin' why, your face no longer shines
I'm wonderin' why, you're always on my mind
I'm still wonderin', give me a little more time
