

Forever

Mitch Malloy

Time forever and time will tell
Never saying never, never say farewell
Wide eyed children beneath the spell
One look at each other and in love they fell
    Never never forever
Well I wonder how and I wonder why
When you love someone do you say goodbye
    Is the end beginning or will this be
    Forever
Well I wonder now will you start to cry
    Will your baby sing you a lullaby
    Is the heart worth winning
    And will this be
    Forever and ever
All those memories and all those years
    All these broken hearted people
    And all those tears
Somehow somewhere something's lost
    Looking for love no matter
    What the cost
    Never never forever
Well I do forever is not for you
    So I'll make you an offer
    You can't refuse
