

The Spirit Trail

Dan Fogelberg

May the trail rise up to meet you
May your heart rejoice in song
May the skies be fair above you
As you journey ever onEver on--ever on
Ever on--ever onAnd in this planetary circle
We are but a single stone
Spinning on our fragile axis
Through the endless night alongEver on--ever onMay your love be there to guide us
May it always keep us strong
May we walk within your footsteps
As you lead us ever onEver on--ever on
