Wake Up Call

Hayden Panettiere

You don't buy me flowers
You don't buy me drinks
You don't drive me anywhere
But totally insaneWe used to talk for hours
Until the night was through
But recently your ego
Is going through the roofMaybe you need a wake up call
'Cause you're too comfortable
You think because you've bagged me
You don't have to work at allIt seems like I gotta do wrong
To get your attention
But maybe when I call this man up
You'll finally start to wake upI think I'm gonna have to cheat
To keep your eyes on me
But maybe if I make you jealous
You'll finally start to wake upThis is your wake up call
This is your wake up call
So wake up, wake up
You better wake upYou're under-estimated
The kinda chick I am
'Cause I don't have a problem
Finding someone elseI'll put my little black dress on
And go out to the clubs
And you won't know what's going on
'Til tomorrow when your boys tell you
I was dancing with someoneMaybe you need a wake up call
You're way too comfortable
You think because you've bagged me
You don't have to work at allIt seems like I gotta do wrong
To get your attention
But maybe when I call this man up
You'll finally start to wake upI think I'm gonna have to cheat
To keep your eyes on me
But maybe if I make you jealous
You'll finally start to wake upThis is your wake up call
This is your wake up call
So wake up, wake up
You better wake upYou're taking me for granted
Boy, you're really slacking

If I see somebody I like
I'ma have to grab 'emTime is running out but
You need to do me right so
I'ma get mine back
You better wake upIt seems like I gotta do wrong
To get your attention
But maybe when I call this man up
You'll finally start to wake upI think I'm gonna have to cheat
To keep your eyes on me
But maybe if I make you jealous
You'll finally start to wake upThis is your wake up call
This is your wake up call
So wake up
Seems like I got it all wrongThis is your wake up call
This is your wake up call
So wake up, wake up
You better wake up
