

Freeway To Fire

The Freeze

My mind is strangely alien unrecognizable to me
it's splintered into unfamiliar shades
I dream my body's melting
My identity ablaze
At every turn I'm standing in my way

While I burn in circles
with desire
Afraid to find my Freeway leads to fire
I burn in circles with desire
Afraid to find my
Freeway leads to fire

I'm drawn to shadow images appearances deceive My childhood's been condensed into a day
My memory's diluted
Now I lose the truth in waves
With a future still to build
My past decays

While I burn in circles
with desire
Afraid to find my Freeway leads to fire
I burn in circles with desire
Afraid to find my Freeway leads to fire

Fire
Fire
Fire
