

Love Woke Me Up This Morning

Marvin Gaye & Tammi Terrell

Love woke me up this morning feeling fine
I had you on my mind, oh oh
Love woke me up this morning
And I haven't had a heartache today, darling
All my little tears are gone away
Skies are blue because of you, I love you Love woke me up this morning, oh yes indeed
Thinking of last night
You know, you made me feel all right, oh
Love woke me up this morning
I'm so glad, yes I am Because of you, happiness is mine
All my cloudy days are all behind
Baby, every place I see your face
And now I smile, you made my life worthwhile
Yes you did
I haven't had a heartache today
And all my little tears are gone away
Because of you, happiness is mine
And all my cloudy days are all behind
I haven't had a heartache today
And all my little tears are gone away
