

Underground

Montrose

Take me now or take me underground

Send me to meet my dark, dark sky.

Lord, help a sinner

Lord, help a fool

Take me now or let me die.

Well you take me and you break me

Well you take me and you break me.

Take me now or take me underground

Well change me into a maggot pie.

Still, if you want some, go and get your spoon

Eagles devouring a silver moon.

One by one we've been strolling down the line,

One by one they're always taking up my space and up my time.

One by one companies crawling out my ears,

One by one they're all burning up my space and up my years.

Well you take me and you break me

And you make me your slave.

Well you take me and you break me
