

Secret

The Birthday Massacre

I woke up as I lay there bleeding slow
There was no way to make all this blow over so
I started writing the ending, I said too much
And you just kept on pretending for both of us I could never speak in a way
(What you)
Wanted to hear, I couldn't convey
We were just sinking too fast to say
The two of us whispering hope away All the days that I've counted, you'll never know
All that I promised you doubted, I told you so
Forget the words that were spoken and thoughts erased
Let's burn the path that was chosen without a trace I could never speak in a way
(What you)
Wanted to hear, I couldn't convey
We were just sinking too fast to say
The two of us whispering hope away I could never speak in a way
(What you)
Wanted to hear, I couldn't convey
We were just sinking too fast to say
The two of us whispering hope away
