Secret

The Birthday Massacre

I woke up as I lay there bleeding slow
There was no way to make all this blow over so
I started writing the ending, I said too much
And you just kept on pretending for both of usI could never speak in a way
(What you)

Wanted to hear, I couldn't convey We were just sinking too fast to say

The two of us whispering hope awayAll the days that I've counted, you'll never know All that I promised you doubted, I told you so

Forget the words that were spoken and thoughts erased
Let's burn the path that was chosen without a traceI could never speak in a way
(What you)

Wanted to hear, I couldn't convey
We were just sinking too fast to say
The two of us whispering hope awayI could never speak in a way
(What you)

Wanted to hear, I couldn't convey We were just sinking too fast to say The two of us whispering hope away
