Accidentally Cute

Sam Burchfield

(Instrumental)

Every woman knows that a man canâ€™t keep his cool Dressinâ€™ for impressing makinâ€™ a gentalman act dat fool Well I know you donâ€™t think that skirt is too tight But baby you got booty busting out the sides It aint right

you got your styling shoes and your diamond neckless too you got that ninety - five dollar hair do and a shirt I can see straight through so donâ€™t try to say your accidentally cute pretty little lady how did your teeth get so white you got that curly hair just bouncing down your back and your long legs stepping out tonight I know you just think Iâ€™m just a stupid man but I can see through all your womanly plans (ooh I can)

you got your styling shoes and your diamond neckless too
you got that ninety - five dollar hair do
and a shirt I can see straight through
So, donâ€™t try to say your accidentally cute

(oh, come on mama)

(instrumental)

see everybody knows youâ€™ve been dragging me down baby Iâ€™m right here getting it up my minds telling me to scream and shout you got to stop stop, stop, stop wearing those high heeled shoes and your diamond neckless too You got that hundred - five dollar hair do

and a shirt I can see straight through so donâ€™t try to say your accidentally donâ€™t you try to say that your accidentally baby donâ€™t try to say your accidentally cute
