

Notbroken

Goo Goo Dolls

All I waited for,
Was a chance to make you understand
And tell you these forgotten truths
You never thought were real
And if the world should turn it's back,
You know that I'm still hereTime won't ever steal my soul
We're not broken, so please come homeMorning comes, and life moves on
And when it changed, you didn't know where you belong
And I'll still catch you when you fall through a past that steals your sleep
And scrawl these words upon your wall, remind you to believeTime won't ever steal my soul
We're not broken, so please come home
If the world has worn you down
I'll be waiting, so please come homeI won't let them break you down
And I won't hear the empty sounds,
I'm hopelessly pretending that I know the answer
Angels light the neon fires that burn so cold through your desires
And all you are is all I need to knowWhen the world is insane,
You get used to the pain
And you don't even know what you feel
And I was like you,
All alone and confused
But you know it's not foreverTime won't ever steal my soul
We're not broken, so please come home
If the world has worn you down
I'll be waiting, so please come home
