Ten Feet Tall (II)

Passion Pit

Look at me now, I'm 10 feet tall
They say they know what's good for you, they say to take it slow
Well I could [?], because I want it all
Darling what you say about me, it comes into the boothIt's all I'll ever know
It's all I'll ever know
It's everything I own
It's all I'll ever knowThese motherfuckers and their goddamn roasts
Praying what they say is what goes, pretending no one knows
They put you down, you could get back on your tour
Saying that I sing these songs, and singing what I loveBut it's all I've ever known
It's all I'll ever know
It's everything I own
And it's all I'll ever know
