The Holidays

Everybody is looking for something For someone to lean on, to count on
If you feel like you've got no one
Remember that I'll be home for the holidays
That I'll be home for the holidays.Little Sally J.Daddy's not around, he's always on the road,
She knows he got to work to put food on the table, He's doing everything he's able
But she's only a little girl, I wish she'd understand how to live in this world
So she's feeling all aloneMama's always there, but she's always on the phone
But she knows when the snow starts to fall
He's coming right back around Homee.
She can't wait for the sound of his carpool In the Driveway Again
And while she waits by the window
She sees the face that she's been waiting for so long.

Everybody is looking for something For someone to lean on, to count on
If you feel like you've got no one
Remember that I'll be home for the holidays
That I'll be home for the holidays
(Oh oh oh oh)
That I'll be home for the holidaysHe can't concentrate on what the teacher is writing on the board
Chris' got his mind steady waitin' on
His big brother cross the water, At war he's gone
Hope he got the letter It said
"I'm getting too big now"
EvenThough Hes not here today (Whaa) to wipe his tears away...He knows when the snow starts to fall
He's coming right back around Homee
And He Cant wait for the sound of his carpool In the driveway Again.
And while he waits by the window
He sees the face that he's been waiting for so long
Everybody is looking for something For someone to lean on, to count on
If you feel like you've got no one
Remember that I'll be home for the holidays
That I'll be home for the holidays
(Oh oh oh oh)
That I'll be home for the holiday
(Oh oh oh oh)That I'll be home.
That I'll be home for the holidayClose your eyes and imagine this... family everywhere
People full of cheer.
There's no better place to be than home.Than HomeeEverybody is looking for something For someone to lean on, to count on
