IndestructibleHere are the English lyricsIndestructible...

It's gone by fast, hasn't it? The time flows on the way we are

Since when have we started thinking alike?

Fights, Silence, we do everything together

And even then, your voice gives me a feeling of reliefHow you like me? With these new emotional arguments, it's so hard

It's not easy, but it feels niceThis Indestructible Unbreakable bonds that can never be broken
Our soul is a twin soul (twin soul)For example, even if it looks like you're about to fall from a cliff,
At least know that I won't let go of your hand

(Indestructible)

Because I will protect you until the endMaybe it's because of you, surprisingly I like myself
There are a lot of things I hate too, you know? And they're starting to disappearMy dad said to me when I was very little,

"Being with someone you love will make you a stronger person"Am I just confused now? I wonder if my feelings have been conveyed to you

Well, honestly I want to tell you about them nowSometimes important things are just Invisible They can't be seen

So, I've gotta say this to you over and over again (say to you)If we were to break up and I didn't have to feel anything, well I would want to feel everything

This destiny

Thank youLet's let this ship sail

Inside the raising (raising) wind

I will never surrender

Tie our numerous feelings together and Head into the world which we have never ever seenThis Indestructible Unbreakable bonds that can never be broken

It's certainly our soul

For example, even if someone were to try and hurt me

No matter what happens, it will be alrightImportant things are Invisible They can't be seen
So, I want to tell you over and over (want to tell you) Without you I wouldn't be here right now

This destinyIndestructible...

Indestructible...
