

Game Over

Vv Brown

I'm in the same old mess again
Another love has reached the end
You never really gave a damn
I thought you were a better man
Oh no, you got me in a headlock
Checking my alarm clock
Now just let me go
It don't mean a thing
'Cause I don't wanna mess around with a joker
And I don't really care
'Cause this is my life, not a game of poker
And I don't give a damn
My heart made me drunk but my mind is sober
So can you get the gist?
I'mma make a move 'cause the game is over
I gave you 20,000 chances
And put up with your cheating glances
So open up that prison door
'Cause I don't love you anymore
Oh no, you got me in a headlock
Checking my alarm clock
Now just let me go
It don't mean a thing
'Cause I don't wanna mess around with a joker
And I don't really care
'Cause this is my life, not a game of poker
And I don't give a damn
My heart made me drunk but my mind is sober
So can you get the gist?
I'mma make a move 'cause the game is over
Oh, no, I've started a war
My emotions are just cutting me raw
Oh, no, you lowered your score
'Cause you messed up good and I cannot ignore
Oh, no, tears galore
But I changed my mind 'cause he's broken the law
Oh, no, I've seen it before
And your system's 'bout to crash to the floor
Crash to the floor

Crash to the floor
Crash to the floor
It don't mean a thing
'Cause I don't wanna mess around with a joker
And I don't really care
'Cause this is my life, not a game of poker
And I don't give a damn
My heart made me drunk but my mind is sober
So can you get the gist?
I'mma make a move 'cause the game is over
