The Deal

Taylor Hicks

The sun's shining and it's raining
No better way to describe my feel
When you left my heart was complaining
How a couple of days can act like years
I know living with me ain't easy
When I tell you how I feel
A simple phrase,
Hard to put into words
Let it grow
Let it show
Let it flow
I'm here to show you, baby,
This love is real
Wherever you go
My heart's bound to follow
Wherever you go
Then I'll be there
This being gone's
Been a tough pill to swallow
I hope you can feel me in the air

Now I don't mind a whole lot of waiting
If this is truly how you feel
I'm tired of scratching those reservations
If I just might, tonight, then all right
If it's real, then go on baby
And let's make that deal
Mmmmmm
I've given you the best I've got to offer
'cause there ain't no more in here to see
This premonition I have is awful
Thanks to the moonbeams' generosity
Now I don't mind a whole lot of waiting
If this is truly how you feel
I'm tired of scratching those reservations
If I just might, tonight, then all right
If it's real, then go on baby
If I just might, tonight, then all right
If it's real, then go on baby

Let's make that deal, mmmmmmmm
Let's make that deal
