Fading

Decyfer Down

It starts with one time to fit in Addiction slowly setting in
I drifted off into dismayEyes looking back at me
I can't even see your face
The pressure is closing in
It's taken me againWait, it's all that I can take
And every single day
A part of my soul is fading
But now by letting go somehow
Unshackled and unbound
I'm calling out your name
I'm fading

From what I've becomeIt's like a force that's pulling you It's empty promise hides the truthEyes looking back at me

So save me

I can't even see your face
The pressure is closing in
It's taken me againWait, it's all that I can take
And every single day

A part of my soul is fading But now by letting go somehow Unshackled and unbound

I'm calling out your name

I'm fading

So save me

From what I've becomeJust about to break

Help me see the way

I shatter into pieces on the floorWait, it's all that I can take

And every single day

A part of my soul is fading

But now by letting go somehow

Unshackled and unbound

I'm calling out your name

I'm fadingEyes looking back at me

I can't even see your face

The pressure is closing in

It's taken me againWait, it's all that I can take

And every single day

But now by letting go somehow
Unshackled and unbound
I'm calling out your name
I'm fadingOh! Wait, it's all that I can take
And every single day
A part of my soul is fading
But now by letting go somehow
Unshackled and unbound
I'm calling out your name
I'm fading
So save me
From what I've become
