Is There Life After Breakfast?

Ray Davies

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Lift yourself out of the doldrums
Make yourself a cuppa tea
Drag your emotions out of the gutter
Don't wallow in self pityWhen you wake up, all of a fluster
Thinking life has passed you by
Give yourself a kick up the backside
Jump out of bed and punch the skyIs there life after breakfast
Full of possibilities
Is there life after breakfast?
Yes there is, after breakfast
So don't live in agony
Is there life after breakfast?
Yes there is, after breakfastCheer up son, put on the kettle
There's no point in being glum
Make your mind up, try to forget her
Boil the tea and I'll be mumIs there life after breakfast?
Yes there is, after breakfast
So don't live in agony
Is there life after breakfast?
Yes there is, after breakfastAfter breakfast
Life after breakfast
After breakfastJust because all of the plumbing
Isn't all it used to be
Turn the tap, see, a little bit's coming
That must make you feel relievedDon't turn into a total embarrassment
To your friends and family
Get out of bed, the whole day's ahead
So take the pills and drink your teaIs there life after breakfast
Full of possibilities
Is there life after breakfast?
Yes there is, after breakfast
So don't be so depressive

Is there life after breakfast?
Yes there is, after breakfastIs there life after breakfast
Full of possibilities
Is there life after breakfast?
Yes there is, after breakfast
Is there life after breakfast?
Is there life after breakfast?Put the kettle on, mate
