

I Will Not Stop Fighting

Leo Sayer

Oh, I can see the sadness in your eyes
Well, you shouldn't ever have to cry
Oh, I will put you back on your feet again if you'll let me try
Oh, I will not stop fighting for you until the day I die Oh, they know how to shatter your dreams
But this time they've really gone to extremes
They just don't give a damn about you and me, baby
But we will not stop dreaming until they set us free Oh well, a change of heart leads to a change of mind
We shouldn't be here wishing for a change of mind
I remember when we were just starting out
Your world was lonely, needed mine
So I will not stop fighting for you until I run out of time Oh, but I want to stay this close to you
And I don't want it to stop, no, until you feel happy too
No one else will understand what we're going through
But I will not stop fighting until you stop fighting too
