

Help in the Head

The Faint

Young one's pissed after she did fought more
Necktie?
High ideals but the tongue's never listening
And the message is shit but the world is ice queen I said play the game, I confess
I just met you, help in the head
You don't know what I think I said
I just met you, I need help in the head
I just met you, I need help Christmas isn't just for the new born
Ice caged delicacies, tales of the bible
Sun and?
While we're left with the miracle, plays with the hopeful I said play the game, I confess
I just met you, help in the head
You don't know what I think I said
I just met you, I need help in the head
I just met you, I need help in the head
I just met you, I need help
