Understanding

Puressence

You always seem to me, to be so understanding,
Now you go away and leave me empty-handed,
Your fashions changed and now you know,
I'm way outside my only home,
Wanna go outside so I can keep my clothes on,
I've seen it all a million times, I wanna keep my clothes on,If I can change your mind now,
If I can make you climb down,
Then I'll feel such a fool,You always seem to me to have the right perception,
I'm in a different place, I'm at the wrong reception,
Your fashion changed and now you fold,
You leave me standing in the hope,
Wanna go outside so I can keep my clothes on,
I've seen it all a million times, I wanna keep my clothes on,If I can change your mind now,
And if I can make you climb down,
If can change your mind now,
Then I'll feel so secure,If I can change your mind now,
And if I can make you climb down,
If can change your mind now,
I'll feel so secure.
