Genius (feat. Gush)

C2C

There's a genius up and in you tonight
And the way you moving now, blazing the light
The livin' got this living the tice
Down to the wire, hearth to the inside
Let it all hang out
Your Jesus of goo
Tonight breaking outGirl I'm your genius tonight
If its alright, if its alright
Girl I'm your genius tonight
If its alright, its alrightNow we might have been somewhat mesmerized
One by the other just like on cloud nine
Up is sta getting whole lifetime
Is your instinct as guide
Where we both turn to life
(It's alright now)
Once and for all
The Jesus of goo, tonight breaking outGirl I'm your genius tonight
If its alright, if its alright
Girl I'm your genius tonight
If its alrightYour wish is coming trueI've been locked in
So long
Set me free, set me free (set me free)
And the world still
My side
Right nowGirl I'm your genius tonight
If its alright, if its alright
Girl I'm your genius tonight
If its alright
Your wish is coming trueRight time
To the set
Of the night
To the night
At last
Break outRight time
To the set
Of the night
To the night
At last
Break out

(Break out)Girl I'm your genius tonight
If its alright, if its alright
Girl I'm your genius tonight
If its alright
Your wish is coming trueGirl I'm your genius tonight
If its alright, if its alright
Girl I'm your genius tonight
Your wish is coming trueAnd there's genius up and in me tonight
And the way you movin' now
Dazing the light
A livin' God is livin and fine
Down to the wire
Right up in here now
All hang out
You're the Jesus of goo, tonight breaking out
