Rivers Run Deep

Timothy Bloom

The Delicate sent of sex still floats in the air
Because last night I made you sweat out your hair
Your lying right next me
And all I want to do is watch you breathe
Making love to you is no simple task
And I hope I had all the skills to handle that
Do my words entrance your mind?
Cause my tongue takes the time to findThat ecstasy is buried underneath
Where Rivers Run deepLast night I thought you just wanted to sleep
But then you flipped the script and you mounted me
You grab the ranks and off we go
Midnight star in a rodeo
You wake up with hunger in your eyes
Then you put your hands between my thighs
Now round two
I can read all of the signs.That ecstasy is buried underneath where Rivers Run Deep (repeat)
