Natale's Song

Sia

I'm in the wars
Can't speak for crying
Close all the doors
Since I am dyingPick up the phone
Attempt to call her
I'm all alone
Until she answersMomentarily, she brings peace to me
Momentarily, she brings peace to meShe barely speaks
But I hear her breathing
And that's all I need
Someone who's listeningAnd still she stays
Her time is precious
Until I am safe
She gives her presenceMomentarily, she brings peace to me
Momentarily, she brings peace to me
Momentarily, she brings peace to me
Momentarily, she brings peace to me
