

Unfortunately

DaysLeft

Confusions born here every day
Spinning circles upon my brain
 No idea which way to go
Roam around without a homeSo fucking lost, invalidated
 So brought down demasculated
 All the joy just disappeared
Another bed full of tearsHope dissolved, degenerated
 The negative has penetrated
 No wish for sympathy
It's all a mystery to meComing apart at the seams
 Wanna be alone for the rest of my years
 Don't come inside
 Leave it to me to go on unfortunately
UnfortunatelyConfusions born here every day
 Spinning circles upon my brain
 No idea which way to go
Roam around without a homeAll my wishes evaporated
 Insecurities saturated
 So many flaws reappeared
The wrong way I tend to steerComing apart at the seams
 Wanna be alone for the rest of my years
 Don't come inside
 Leave it to me to go on unfortunately
Unfortunately, unfortunately, unfortunately
