You Didn't Tell Me

Lawson

There you stood, next to me
And you waited, patiently
I approached, held you near
Then you whispered, in my earYou didnt tell me
You didnt need me
You went and left it all behind
You didnt tell me
You didnt warn me
Didnt it ever cross your mind?Friday night, cancelled plans
Then I see you, holding hands
With a guy, now its clear
When you whispered in his earYou didnt tell me
You didnt need me
You went and left it all behind
You didnt tell me
You didnt warn me
Didnt it ever cross your mind?Didnt you tell me
That I was spending way too long
Wasting my timeOh and I should have known
That I am better off on my ownYou didnt tell me
You didnt need me
You went and left it all behind
You didnt tell me
You didnt warn me
Didnt it ever cross your mind?You didnt tell me
You didnt need me
Didnt it ever cross your mind?
You didnt tell me
You didnt warn me
Didnt you ever say goodbye?Oh, oh yeah
There you stood
