Human

Darren Criss

I feel like a loser
I feel like I'm lost
I feel like I'm not sure if I feel anything at all
But believe me, I'm not helpless
I just need someone to love
So my situation's rough
That just makes me a dumb human, like you
I feel like a short stop
Along third base
I may just help you but I still don't like your face
But believe me, I'm not hostile
I just want to hear you laugh
When I'm sarcastic like that,

That just makes me a dumb human, like you
Why do I have this incredible need to stand up and say "Please pay attention"
It's the last thing that I need to make myself see
Well, that ain't my intention
I feel like an artist who's lost his touch
He likes himself in his art,
But not his art too much
But believe me I got something,
I just don't know how to say
That I'm just fine with the way, the way that I'm movin'
But that just makes me a dumb human
That just makes me
That makes me a human, like you
